SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is announcing the availability of a draft guidance entitled Guidance for Industry: Guide to Minimize Microbial Food Safety Hazards of Melons. This draft guidance covers melons that are grown and harvested for fresh market (i.e., fresh, unprocessed form) or for fresh-cut/value-added products (i.e., minimally processed, such as trimmed, peeled, sliced or diced, and then bagged or prepackaged), cooled, shipped to retail, wholesale or for processing, and offered for sale to the consumer. The term melons as used in this draft guidance includes raw agricultural commodities and fresh-cut/value-added products derived from cantaloupe (also known as muskmelons), honeydew, watermelon, and variety melons (e.g., Canary, Crenshaw, and Galia). This draft guidance is based primarily on melon industry guidelines issued in 2005 (Ref. 1), along with agency experience and information from other recent public and private programs.

FDA is issuing this draft guidance as Level 1 draft guidance consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The draft guidance, when finalized, will represent the agency's current thinking on the microbiological hazards presented by fresh and fresh-cut melons and the recommended control measures for such hazards in production and harvesting, postharvest operations, processing, distribution, and retail and food service handling of such produce. It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. An alternative approach may be used if such approach satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

II. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (the PRA) (44 U.S.C. 35013520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. Collection of information is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) requires Federal agencies to publish notice in the Federal Register soliciting public comment on each proposed collection of information before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, FDA will publish a 60-day notice on the proposed collection of information in a future issue of the Federal Register.
